To Whom It May Concern:

Good day!

I am Diana Grace Yabis, born on June 15, 1993 in Manila, Philippines with passport number EB6354276. I live at #25 Halimbawa Street, Chorva Village, Makati, Philippines.

I am writing this letter as remonstrance for the rejection of my visa application I received from the German Embassy dated May 26, 2016. My visa application was refused for the reason that my "intention to leave the territory of the Member States before the expiry of the visa could not be ascertained".

I don't understand why I was refused a tourist visa when I have shown proofs that I will be coming back to the Philippines after my approved vacation leave from work. Hence I am writing to appeal my visa application and I have attached additional documents as proof that I do not intend to be an illegal immigrant in Germany.

Firstly, I have submitted all the documents that you require as proof of "Your rootedness in the Philippines" as an employee. I am a full-time employee of Unilever RFM as a Distributor Development Executive since April 16, 2015. I have submitted and attached in this appeal again all the required documents as proof that I will return to the Philippines after my approved vacation leave: my Certificate of Employment, my Income Tax Return and my approved Leave of Absence.

Secondly, I have studied and lived in Warsaw and travelled around Europe in 2011-2012 as a full scholar of the European Commission under the Erasmus Mundus scholarship scheme. I studied at University of Warsaw from September 2011 to March 2012 as an exchange student. I have travelled to almost a dozen countries in Europe during this time. I have attached a photo of my type D visa issued by the Embassy of Poland. I would also like to point out that I followed the dates of my visa and left from the Schengen Area before its expiry. If I wanted to be an illegal immigrant in Europe, I have plenty of opportunities to do so during this time.

Thirdly, I will be traveling with my parents, Jose and Maria Yabis, at the same time to visit my brother, DJ Yabis, who lives in Germany. I have not visited my brother who has lived in Germany for the last 3 years and I would love to visit this year with my parents as we have planned this to be a family get-together in Germany. Our family has NO RECORD of overstaying visas, illegal immigration or any of that sort. I HAVE NO DREAMS of becoming an illegal immigrant. I can even report at your embassy when I come back to show you that I, in fact, came back to the Philippines. I have also attached my parent's visas and my brother's passport and German ID on this appeal.

Me and my parents are planning to fly together on Saturday, June 25, 2016, to Germany. I hope you can respond to my appeal as soon as possible because I have barely two weeks before our planned departure date and I still need to book my flights.

Thank you so much for considering my appeal and I hope to hear a positive response from you.

Sincerely,

Diana Grace Yabis
